Narita International Airport to Ueno/Tokyo

There are two ways to come to the University of Tokyo from Narita International Airport via railways:

- 1) Keisei Skyliner from Narita to Keisei Ueno,
- 2) JR (Japan Railway) Narita Express from Narita to Tokyo.

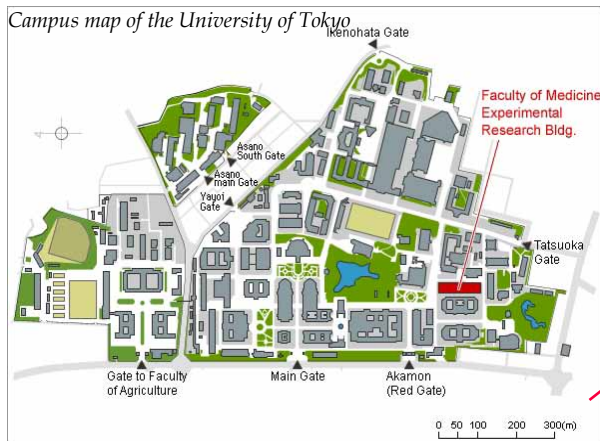

It takes about 1 hour from Narita to Ueno or Tokyo. These trains leave every 30 minutes. Access guide to Narita Airport presented online by JR-east and Keiikyū Railway provides timetables and fares.

Both terminals 1 and 2 of Narita Airport have train station of JR and Keiikyū. Purchase the tickets at the station counter before getting the train. JR Narita Express requires seat reservation besides the tickets.
